

If the FCC will permit Sinclair Broadcasting air propaganda of one sort that may, as intended, have a direct effect on the elections, then it should permit other forms of propaganda be aired. Targetting the Kerry campaign with dishonest pap should be matched by the same caliber of rubbish directed at Mr. Bush's campaign, no?

The FCC needs to get involved here. Simple. In the meantime, I think I'll join the boycott against Sinclair Broadcasting.